Whereas, seventy wondrous years ago on May 29, 1937, Francis Daniel Conley took the hand of his beautiful bride, Betty Lee Swan, as they began their commitment to a lifetime of shared love and devotion by exchanging wedding vows during a solemn ceremony officiated by the Justice of the Peace and witnessed by the bride's parents, Estle Leonard and Amine Calvin Swan, along with the bride's sister, Fern Swan, in Liberty, Missouri; and

Whereas, in the years since that heavenly day, Dan and Betty Conley have had the pleasure of watching their family grow to include four children and their spouses, June and Don McCulley of Topeka, Kansas, Everett "Bud" and Ann Conley of Excelsior Springs, Pat Harmon of Liberty, and Arlene McCorkle of Lathrop; eleven grandchildren; twenty-two great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild; and

Whereas, Dan Conley is known as a dedicated family man who generously provided his loved ones with a comfortable home and secure future through his successful endeavors at Shepard Farm, from which he retired in 1993; and

Whereas, a devoted wife, loving mother, and outstanding homemaker, Betty Conley further distinguished herself by working at National Bell Hess; and

Whereas, Dan and Betty Conley have found the road to happiness by putting all of their energy, love, and ambition into their marriage and by knowing that a successful union is built upon such strong qualities as sacrifice, dedication, and honesty; and
